Subject: Notice of Challenge to Eligibility to Vote

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Jason Shepherd, am a registered voter in Cobb County. Please accept this correspondence as notice pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 21-2-230(a) of my challenge to the qualifications of certain individuals on Cobb County's voter list to vote in the run-off election on January 5, 2021.

The grounds for my challenge are that I have evidence that there are approximately 16,024 individuals registered to vote in Cobb County who reside outside the State of Georgia. This information was gathered by running the Cobb County voter registration data base against the National Change of Address Registry.

I have included with this challenge a thumb-drive containing a list of approximately 16,024 individuals who simultaneously appear on both:

- (a) the Cobb County voter registration data base, and
- (b) the National Change of Address Registry with an address listed outside of Cobb County

Georgia law states that "[n]o person shall vote in any primary or election held in this state unless such person shall be... [a] resident of this state and of the county or municipality in which he or she seeks to vote. . ." O.C.G.A. § 21-2-216(a).

Georgia law specifies several rules for determining residency. For example, O.C.G.A. § 21-2-217(a)(4) states that Georgia residency is lost "[i]f a person removes to another state with the intention to making it such person's residence."

I believe that each of the individuals named on the attached thumb-drive has, as a result of registering their name and change of address to a location outside of Cobb County, removed to another state with the intention of making the new state their residence. Thus, each individual has lost their residence in Cobb County, and consequently, each individual is ineligible to vote in Cobb County.

I respectfully request that the Cobb County Registration and Elections Board "immediately consider this challenge and determine whether probable cause exists to sustain such challenge." O.C.G.A. §21-2-230(b).

I also respectfully request that the Cobb County Registration and Elections Board inform me of its decision whether to find probable cause via email addressed to cobbgop@gmail.com and via US mail addressed to:
